Get ready for the Global Engagement Rally

📅 November 18, 2023 📍 Via Zoom

Key Club International will host its annual Global Engagement Rally at 7 p.m. ET/ 4 p.m. PT, Saturday, November 18 on Zoom.

Registration is now closed. Zoom link sent to registrants the day before the event.

What is the Global Engagement Rally?

With 38 countries represented within Key Club, the Global Engagement Rally is an online event that celebrates the strength of our shared service, with the opportunity to engage with diverse volunteers from around the world.

Who is invited?

All Key Club members and advisors are welcome and encouraged to attend the Global Engagement Rally.

We can't wait to see you there!

Agenda

7 p.m. ET Opening Session and Keynote

Our keynote speaker is Reena Ramani, a high school student in Alabama, U.S., who founded the organization Project ME. Project ME is a menstrual equity project that addresses period poverty facing schools in low-resource countries. Learn more about how she is having an impact in Zambia, among other places. Truly an inspiring story!

There will be three workshop blocks with various sessions to choose from.
